EXPANDED SCOPE OF WORK STATEMENT

At the request of the client, this appraisal report has been prepared in compliance with the Uniform Appraisal Dataset (UAD) from Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. The UAD requires the appraiser to use standardized responses that include specific formats, definitions, abbreviations, and acronyms. The appraiser attempted to obtain an adequate amount of information in the normal course of business regarding the subject and comparable properties. Some of the standardized responses required by the UAD, especially those in which the appraiser has NOT had the opportunity to verify personally or measure, could mistakenly imply greater precision and reliability in the data than is factually correct or typical in the normal course of business. Examples include size of the basement, condition and quality ratings as well as comparable sales and listing data. The appraiser makes no representations, guarantees or warranties express or implied, regarding building materials, their fitness, quality, condition or remaining economic life. Not every element of the subject property was viewable. The appraiser did not move any personal property, due to liability concerns for potential damage to the property, to disclose or reveal any unapparent or hidden defects to the structure, nor did the appraiser dismantle or probe the structure to observe enclosed, encased, or otherwise concealed areas. Comparable data was generally obtained from third-party sources including but not limited to the local MLS, County Assessor, Township Assessor, online resources and additional public data sources. Consequently, this information should be considered and "estimate" unless otherwise noted by the appraiser. The Appraiser's inspection of the subject property is done only as part of the appraisal assignment's scope of work, which is one of the recognized and required steps in the appraisal process, as required by the lender/client. The Appraiser is NOT a qualified home inspector and makes no representation or warranty about the current or future condition, quality or adequacy of the structural and/or mechanical components of the subject property. The borrower(s)/owner(s) should not rely upon any representation or description contained in the appraisal report concerning these aspects of the subject property. It is recommended that the borrower(s)/owner(s) obtain an inspection report from a qualified expert such as a home inspector.

Highest and Best Use:

The following factors determine the highest and best use of the subject property:

1. Legally Permissible

2. Physically Possible

3. Financially Feasible and

4. Maximally Productive.

A change in the current use/configuration of the property would incur a cost to cure. Although, in some cases, there is a choice to be made by the homeowner in regards to present preference of use, the current configuration as of the effective date of this report is the highest and best use and is as appraised.

COST APPROACH TO VALUE (not required by Fannie Mae)

Provide adequate information for the lender/client to replicate the below cost figures and calculations.

Cost approach estimates are based upon both cost estimates from NAHB/(Solomon Calculators). Depreciation is based upon the age/life method. Due to the age of the subject, the cost approach is not considered a reliable indicator of value.

Uniform Residential Appraisal Report

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a one-unit property or a one-unit property with an accessory unit; including a unit in a planned unit development (PUD). This report form is not designed to report an appraisal of a manufactured home or a unit in a condominium or cooperative project.

This appraisal report is subject to the following scope of work, intended use, intended user, definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. Modifications, additions, or deletions to the intended use, intended user, definition of market value, or assumptions and limiting conditions are not permitted. The appraiser may expand the scope of work to include any additional research or analysis necessary based on the complexity of this appraisal assignment. Modifications or deletions to the certifications are also not permitted. However, additional certifications that do not constitute material alterations to this appraisal report, such as those required by law or those related to the appraiser's continuing education or membership in an appraisal organization, are permitted.

SCOPE OF WORK: The scope of work for this appraisal is defined by the complexity of this appraisal assignment and the reporting requirements of this appraisal report form, including the following definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. The appraiser must, at a minimum: (1) perform a complete visual inspection of the interior and exterior areas of the subject property, (2) inspect the neighborhood, (3) inspect each of the comparable sales from at least the street, (4) research, verify, and analyze data from reliable public and/or private sources, and (5) report his or her analysis, opinions, and conclusions in this appraisal report.

INTENDED USE: The intended use of this appraisal report is for the lender/client to evaluate the property that is the subject of this appraisal for a mortgage finance transaction.

INTENDED USER: The intended user of this appraisal report is the lender/client.

DEFINITION OF MARKET VALUE: The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby: (1) buyer and seller are typically motivated; (2) both parties are well informed or well advised, and each acting in what he or she considers his or her own best interest; (3) a reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market; (4) payment is made in terms of cash in U. S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and (5) the price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions* granted by anyone associated with the sale.

*Adjustments to the comparables must be made for special or creative financing or sales concessions. No adjustments are necessary for those costs which are normally paid by sellers as a result of tradition or law in a market area; these costs are readily identifiable since the seller pays these costs in virtually all sales transactions. Special or creative financing adjustments can be made to the comparable property by comparisons to financing terms offered by a third party institutional lender that is not already involved in the property or transaction. Any adjustment should not be calculated on a mechanical dollar for dollar cost of the financing or concession but the dollar amount of any adjustment should approximate the market's reaction to the financing or concessions based on the appraiser's judgment.

STATEMENT OF ASSUMPTIONS AND LIMITING CONDITIONS: The appraiser's certification in this report is subject to the following assumptions and limiting conditions:

1. The appraiser will not be responsible for matters of a legal nature that affect either the property being appraised or the title to it, except for information that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing this appraisal. The appraiser assumes that the title is good and marketable and will not render any opinions about the title.
2. The appraiser has provided a sketch in this appraisal report to show the approximate dimensions of the improvements. The sketch is included only to assist the reader in visualizing the property and understanding the appraiser's determination of its size.
3. The appraiser has examined the available flood maps that are provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (or other data sources) and has noted in this appraisal report whether any portion of the subject site is located in an identified Special Flood Hazard Area. Because the appraiser is not a surveyor, he or she makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding this determination.
4. The appraiser will not give testimony or appear in court because he or she made an appraisal of the property in question, unless specific arrangements to do so have been made beforehand, or as otherwise required by law.
5. The appraiser has noted in this appraisal report any adverse conditions (such as needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) observed during the inspection of the subject property or that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing the appraisal. Unless otherwise stated in this appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent physical deficiencies or adverse conditions of the property (such as, but not limited to, needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, adverse environmental conditions, etc.) that would make the property less valuable, and has assumed that there are no such conditions and makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied. The appraiser will not be responsible for any such conditions that do exist or for any engineering or testing that might be required to discover whether such conditions exist. Because the appraiser is not an expert in the field of environmental hazards, this appraisal report must not be considered as an environmental assessment of the property.
6. The appraiser has based his or her appraisal report and valuation conclusion for an appraisal that is subject to satisfactory completion, repairs, or alterations on the assumption that the completion, repairs, or alterations of the subject property will be performed in a professional manner.

Advanced Criteria:

| Quarter         | Time Frame              | Average Sale Price | % Market Change |
|-----------------|-------------------------|--------------------|-----------------|
| First Quarter   | 11/12/2024 - 02/12/2025 | $915,200          | 3.46%           |
| Second Quarter  | 02/13/2025 - 05/12/2025 | $946,601          | 0.03%           |
| Third Quarter   | 05/13/2025 - 08/12/2025 | $953,500          | -0.69%          |
| Current Quarter | 08/13/2025 - 11/12/2025 | $946,893          | 0.00%           |

In the past 12 months, a total of 36 single-family homes were sold, with 18 sold in the last 6 months, 14 properties were sold in the current quarter prior to the effective date of the appraisal. There are currently 20 active listings on the market. Based on the current quarter's data, the absorption rate is 4.67 properties per month, with a marketing time of less than 90 days. Interest rate varies within the range of 6-8%.

Based on average sale prices across different quarters, the market is considered stable, with some variance. To ensure that the appraisal reflects current conditions, comparable sales were analyzed, and time adjustments were applied as necessary. The percentage change in market conditions represents the difference between the average sale price of each respective quarter and the current quarter.

Comparable Sale 1: This comparable had contract date in the Current Quarter. Market analysis indicates that property values have 0.00% as of that date.

Comparable Sale 2: This comparable has a contract date of 04/5/2024, which exceeds 12 months but settled within the current 12-month period. Market analysis indicates that property values have changed by (+) 3.46% as of that date, and it is considered part of the first quarter.

Comparable Sale 3: This comparable has contract date in the Third Quarter. Market analysis indicates that property values have changed by (-) 0.69% as of that date.

Changes in the market conditions that register at less than 1%, do not warrant an adjustment, as they have no significant market impact. Therefore, no adjustments are made for Comparable Sale 2 and 3.

These time adjustments are calculated using a linear appreciation model based on MLS statistics and verified through paired sales analysis.

Overall, this analysis indicates that the subject property is located in a stable market. The adjustments applied to the comparable sales are consistent with observed trends and ensure that the appraisal accurately reflects current market conditions.

COMMENTS ON OTHER LAND USES

"15% other land uses" in the Present land use section refers to vacant land, which consists of state property, city/town property, residential developable land, schools, park, parking lot, industrial developable land, non-residential uses, institutional uses, the state water/sewage treatment facility etc. It is common for the area and has no negative impact on the subject value and marketability.

COMMENTS ON UTILITIES

All utilities were turned on and functional at the time of inspection.

COMMENTS ON HEATING

The subject features FWA heating. It is typical to the subject neighborhood, habitable year-round and has no adverse effect on subject's marketability.

SMOKE/CO DETECTOR AND WATER HEATER

Smoke/CO detectors are required by local codes. They were installed in the property and present at the time of observation. Local law does not require water heater to be strapped.

COMMENTS ON REAL PROPERTY

The cabinets and built-in appliances are considered real property. They were present and operational at the time of inspection.

COMMENTS ON LAND TO VALUE RATIO

Land to value ratio exceeded 30% of estimated value due to lack of buildable land in the subject's neighborhood/market area. However, it is typical for the neighborhood and has no adverse effect on marketability.

LEAD PAINT

The subject was built in year of 1900. Due to the subject's age, it is likely that the dwelling contains lead paint. This appraiser has made no final determination of its presence and such determination is not a requirement for this report. On the date of inspection there was no evidence of loose or peeling paint which could be considered hazardous.

COMMENTS ON EFFECTIVE AGE

The subject was built in year of 1900. Based on the updates and physical observation of property, the effective age is considered to be 15 years. The property has a total life expectancy of approximately 65 years, and as of the effective date of this appraisal, the remaining economic life is estimated to be 50 years.

Subject - Overall Condition of the Property

The subject property is a colonial style single-family dwelling, built in 1900 with 2,744 sf of living area. It has 0.16 Acres (7,105 sf) of land. The property features vinyl siding, asphalt roof and combination of stone/concrete foundation.

The interior of the property consists of 8 rooms, including a living room, dining room, kitchen, family room, four bedrooms, two full baths, and one-half bath.

Interior features new kitchen consisting of wooden cabinetry, quartz countertops and stainless-steel appliances, recess lighting with a stove. New baths have tiled flooring, tub, shower with fittings. Interior floors of the subject property are hardwood throughout. The subject's lower level has a legal in-law unit including a living room, kitchen, one bedroom and one full bath. Unfinished portion of the basement contains the utilities.

The subject has had updates/renovations within the last six months that includes: updated kitchen with new appliances, updated baths, new roof, siding, electrical system, plumbing, doors, windows, porch, deck and sanded hardwood flooring.

The property is currently tenant-occupied. Considering its current state, the subject is rated as C3 for condition and Q3 for quality of construction. All mechanical systems and the electrical services appear adequate for their intended uses. No functional, physical or external inadequacies noted. All the utilities and appliances were working and functional at the time of the inspection. No repair is necessary.

COMMENTS ON IN-LAW APARTMENT

There is a legal In-law unit in the lower level with a living room, one bedroom, kitchen & a full bath. It is verified by a building inspector from the Boston, MA Building Department and the in-law unit is currently rented for $2,290 (See attached permits), however, it was griddled and adjusted accordingly. It is a common practice to consider in-law apartment as a feature and comparable 1 used in the report which has similar in-law apartment as the subject.

URAR: Sales Comparison Analysis - Summary of Sales Comparison Approach

The Gross Living Area (GLA) is adjusted at $80 per square ft. when the difference between the subject's GLA and the comparable GLA exceeded 100 square ft. The GLA adjustment is derived by reconciling between depreciated cost and sensitivity analysis. No site adjustment is warranted due to having no market reaction. Adjustment is made for finished basement/area below grade.

Full bath is adjusted at $10,000 each, half bath at $5,000 each, central air at $10,000, car garage at $15,000 each, carport at $5,000 each, porch/patio/deck at $5,000 each and fireplace at $5,000 each. Adjustment is made for not having fireplaces. More than 2-cars garage does not require any adjustment due to having no market reaction.

Adjustment is made for not having in-law unit. Comparable 1 is adjusted for inferior in overall condition and quality of construction as the subject has had updates/renovations with superior interior finishes (See, Subject - Overall Condition of the Property and pictures). Comparable 3 is adjusted for being located in predominantly and historically higher value area. Comparable 2 is adjusted for market condition (Refer to the addendum of URAR: Neighborhood Market Conditions).

No age adjustment is applied, as the market reaction would be towards overall condition rather than actual age. No adjustment is necessary for differences in total room/bedroom count, as all comparable have already been adjusted for differences in GLA. To adjust for total room/bedroom count would be considered adjusting for the same item of contribution twice. The comparable used in the appraisal were the closest, most recent, and most similar properties available as of the date of the appraisal.

Research/analysis was conducted to identify comparable sales in the subject's neighborhood and market area. Search criteria were expanded up to 1.5-miles from the subject property and 24 months prior from the effective date of this report. However, there were no suitable comparable sales available that could be used to bracket total car garage count.

COMMENTS ON ADJUSTMENTS

The condition and quality of construction were evaluated, and necessary adjustments were made to account for any differences between the subject property and the comparable. Adjustments are only applied when there is a measurable market reaction. Adjustments were derived using matched pair analyses, the depreciation method and the survey method, using tools such as Solomon Calculator, when needed.

Adjustments are market derived and are viewed to be reasonable and warranted. Not all adjustments (or lack of adjustments) can be directly extracted or supported by the available data with a high degree of accuracy, due to absence of like elements of comparison, or instances where market data is inconsistent; typically, and especially when appraising multifaceted properties. Some adjustments have an element of subjectivity and professional judgment, as estimated adjustments are given as ranges and are not exact.

URAR: Reconciliation - Reconciliation and Final Value Conclusion

The Sales Comparison Approach best reflects the attitudes of buyers and sellers in the marketplace and there are sufficient data to develop an indication of value by the Sales Comparison Approach; therefore, it was most heavily weighted.

The Cost Approach was developed. In this market, buyers would not purchase property based on its replacement cost less depreciation. This is because in this segment of the market, the cost approach does not reflect the loss or gain in value from changing market conditions. Generally, there is little justification for this method in a market appraisal, but it has been completed as per the client's request.

The Income Approach was not developed for this assignment.

The Sales Comparison Approach is the most reliable indicator of value in this market.

Comparable 1 is a recent sale, larger in GLA and inferior in overall condition/quality of construction to the subject.

Comparable 2 is smaller in GLA and similar in overall condition/quality of construction to the subject. It is adjusted for market condition.

Comparable 3 is larger in GLA and similar in overall condition/quality of construction to the subject. It is also adjusted for location.

Comparable 4 is a dated sale and it is used as a guide. It is smaller in GLA and similar in overall condition/quality of construction to the subject.

Comparable 5 is the only listing comparable used as supportive data. It is larger in GLA and adjusted for overall quality of construction to the subject.

All the comparable are adjusted for the differences in the grid. The final value falls within the adjusted range and it is well supported. However, Comparable 1 and 2 are given the most weight for the final value estimate due to time of sale, overall similarities to the subject and location accordingly.

Single Family Comparable Rent Schedule: Final Reconciliation of Market Rent

Actual and estimated rents provided are derived from the market. The subject's market rent is estimated based on rents received by similar comparable in terms of GLA, location, bedroom count and condition in the subject's market.

Due to the scarcity of similar rental comparable within the subject's neighborhood, the appraiser utilized the available rental comparable, all of which have smaller GLA than the subject.

Rental comparable 1 is inferior in bedroom count and similar in overall condition to the subject, Rental comparable 2 is superior in bedroom count and similar in overall condition to the subject, Rental comparable 3 similar in bedroom count and inferior in overall condition to the subject. Rental comparable 4 is larger in bedroom count and inferior in overall condition to the subject. Rental comparable 5 is similar in bedroom count and similar in overall condition to the subject.

The estimated rents are based on analysis of actual neighborhood rents and are average-good and reasonable for the subject property 3-5 bedrooms rent ranges from $3,800-$5,600.

COMPARABLE OVER 3, 6, 12 MONTHS AND 0.5 MILES

Due to lack of similar recent comparable sales in the subject's neighborhood, it was necessary to use comparable sales that were closed over 3, 6, 12 months prior to the effective date of the appraisal, and comparable located over 0.5 miles from the subject property.

COMMENTS ON GLA VARIANCE, GROSS, NET AND LINE ADJUSTMENT

GLA variance for Comparable 4 exceeded the industry standard 25%. Gross adjustment for Comparable 1 and 4 exceeded the industry standard 25%. Net adjustment for comparable 1 and 4 exceeded the industry standard 15%. Line adjustment for comparable 1 exceeded the industry standard 10%. However, they are considered to be the most similar and most likely alternatives available at the time of the appraisal.

COMMENT ON PREDOMINANT VALUE

The predominant value reported within the neighborhood section is based on the median sales price of all the sold properties in the area within the last 12 months. The subject's appraised value is higher than the predominant price for homes in this area; however, it is common for this type of home to be in the upper range of the market value. The estimated value of the subject property differs from the predominant value due to variances in condition and the GLA of the dwelling. The subject is not considered to be an over improvement. This has no adverse effect on the subject's value or marketability.

COMPARABLE LOCATED ACROSS THE NEIGHBORHOOD BOUNDARY

Due to lack of similar comparable within the subject's neighborhood boundaries stated in the Neighborhood Section of the report, it was necessary to use comparable that is not located within the stated neighborhood boundaries. Comparable 2, 4, 5 are located outside the defined neighborhood. They are located in areas that are predominantly and historically similar to the subject neighborhood, and competes directly with the subject; therefore, no location adjustment is warranted.

COMMENTS ON COST APPROACH

The cost approach was included but should not be relied upon to establish market value for the subject property. There has been no weight placed on the Cost Approach in the final reconciliation of value. The cost approach works reasonably well for newer buildings which have experienced little accrued depreciation. It is considered inherently weak in establishing value in older buildings because replacement cost and accrued depreciation can be difficult to accurately estimate. Furthermore, the construction cost estimates contained herein were not prepared for insurance purposes or any other reason and are invalid for that purpose of uses.

Site Value: Due to lack of similar vacant land sales in the subject neighborhood, the allocation method is used to derive the estimated site value.

Estimating Replacement Cost: Square-foot method (Comparison method) is used for estimating replacement cost, using the external dimensions of the structures of the subject property.

Depreciation: Physical deterioration is the deterioration of structures due to wear and tear. Physical depreciation calculated using the Age/Life method.

Site Improvement: Market extraction method is used to determine the cost for site improvements.

ANSI DECLARATION OF COMPLIANCE

The GLA calculations /finished square footage calculations for the subject have been reported to the nearest whole square foot for above grade finished areas and below grade finished areas. The GLA/finished square footage calculations have been reported with separate calculations for above grade finished areas and below grade finished areas.

Finished areas that do not meet the criteria of calculated GLA/finished square footage such as those areas not connected to the house, unfinished areas, and other areas that do not fulfill the requirements of GLA/finished square footage have not been counted towards the GLA/finished square footage but have been reported separately.

COMMENTS ON MEASUREMENT

The subject was measured to ANSI Z765-2021 standards as best as possible; many dwellings have curved walls, odd angles, and exterior wall thickness that can offset the actual square footage. The measurements taken during the inspection were found to be in foot or nearest inch.

COMMENTS ON MEASUREMENT OF COMPARABLE

The GLA/finished square footage for the comparable properties reported in the local MLS system and Assessor records may not be ANSI compliant. The appraiser is unable to confirm what method an MLS listing and/or an Assessor used to calculate the GLA/finished square footage of the comparable properties. Through research and knowledge of the local market, the appraiser has come to a conclusion that the GLA/finished square footage of the comparable properties are accurate and made adjustments accordingly.

COMMENTS ON SUBJECT GLA

As per Public Record, the subject's GLA is 2,380 sf. However, the appraiser had physically measured the subject property at the time of appraisal and calculated the GLA being 2,744 sf. In addition, the subject has heated third floor, which was taken into consideration in the calculation of total living area.

FLOOD DISASTER STATEMENT

I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the inspection revealed no indications of significant physical damage to the property and specifically no damage noted from flooding due to recent storm.

Comments on market data, including the range of rents for single family properties, an estimate of vacancy for single family rental properties, the general trend of rents and vacancy, and support for the above adjustments. (Rent concessions should be adjusted to the market, not to the subject property.) Typically many rentals in the market are tenants at will. Demand for rental properties in the subject area is considered to be good, given convenience to employment, medical, educational and cultural centers.

GLA and room count of the subject were obtained from the interior inspection.

The appraiser must fill in all the information to the extent it is available and reliable and must provide analysis as indicated below. If any required data is unavailable or is considered unreliable, the appraiser must provide an explanation. It is recognized that not all data sources will be able to provide data for the shaded areas below; if it is available, however, the appraiser must include the data in the analysis. If data sources provide the required information as an average instead of the median, the appraiser should report the available figure and identify it as an average. Explain in detail the seller concessions trends for the past 12 months (e.g., seller contributions increased from 3% to 5%, increasing use of buydowns, closing costs, condo fees, options, etc.). These conclusions are also based on my surveying of parties to the transaction for sales concessions when I perform appraisals in this market.

Are foreclosure sales (REO sales) a factor in the market? ☐ Yes ☒ No If yes, explain (including the trends in listings and sales of foreclosed properties).

Cite data sources for above information. Data are obtained from Pinergy-MLS and there might be 5% of errors due to inaccuracy of the data in Pinergy-MLS.

Summarize the above information as support for your conclusions in the Neighborhood section of the appraisal report form. If you used any additional information, such as an analysis of pending sales and/or expired and withdrawn listings, to formulate your conclusions, provide both an explanation and support for your conclusions.

See the Market Condition addendum.

The 1004MC is not considered to be accurate due to the overall number of sales and listings. However, an effort was made to obtain the overall trend.

The 1004MC is completed based on the data available in the subject city/market within 12 months prior to the effective date of the appraisal. Comparable sale 4 used in the report is settled/closed over 12 months prior to the effective date of the appraisal. Therefore, it's sale information is not shown in the 1004MC and on the space above the Sales Comparison Approach.

Condition Ratings and Definitions

C1

The improvements have been recently constructed and have not been previously occupied. The entire structure and all components are new and the dwelling features no physical depreciation.

Note: Newly constructed improvements that feature recycled or previously used materials and/or components can be considered new dwellings provided that the dwelling is placed on a 100 percent new foundation and the recycled materials and the recycled components have been rehabilitated/remanufactured into like-new condition. Improvements that have not been previously occupied are not considered "new" if they have any significant physical depreciation (that is, newly constructed dwellings that have been vacant for an extended period of time without adequate maintenance or upkeep).

C2

The improvements feature no deferred maintenance, little or no physical depreciation, and require no repairs. Virtually all building components are new or have been recently repaired, refinished, or rehabilitated. All outdated components and finishes have been updated and/or replaced with components that meet current standards. Dwellings in this category are either almost new or have been recently completely renovated and are similar in condition to new construction.

Note: The improvements represent a relatively new property that is well maintained with no deferred maintenance and little or no physical depreciation, or an older property that has been recently completely renovated.

C3

The improvements are well maintained and feature limited physical depreciation due to normal wear and tear. Some components, but not every major building component, may be updated or recently rehabilitated. The structure has been well maintained.

Note: The improvement is in its first-cycle of replacing short-lived building components (appliances, floor coverings, HVAC, etc.) and is being well maintained. Its estimated effective age is less than its actual age. It also may reflect a property in which the majority of short-lived building components have been replaced but not to the level of a complete renovation.

C4

The improvements feature some minor deferred maintenance and physical deterioration due to normal wear and tear. The dwelling has been adequately maintained and requires only minimal repairs to building components/mechanical systems and cosmetic repairs. All major building components have been adequately maintained and are functionally adequate.

Note: The estimated effective age may be close to or equal to its actual age. It reflects a property in which some of the short-lived building components have been replaced, and some short-lived building components are at or near the end of their physical life expectancy; however, they still function adequately. Most minor repairs have been addressed on an ongoing basis resulting in an adequately maintained property.

C5

The improvements feature obvious deferred maintenance and are in need of some significant repairs. Some building components need repairs, rehabilitation, or updating. The functional utility and overall livability is somewhat diminished due to condition, but the dwelling remains useable and functional as a residence.

Note: Some significant repairs are needed to the improvements due to the lack of adequate maintenance. It reflects a property in which many of its short-lived building components are at the end of or have exceeded their physical life expectancy but remain functional.

C6

The improvements have substantial damage or deferred maintenance with deficiencies or defects that are severe enough to affect the safety, soundness, or structural integrity of the improvements. The improvements are in need of substantial repairs and rehabilitation, including many or most major components.

Note: Substantial repairs are needed to the improvements due to the lack of adequate maintenance or property damage. It reflects a property with conditions severe enough to affect the safety, soundness, or structural integrity of the improvements.

Quality Ratings and Definitions

Q1

Dwellings with this quality rating are usually unique structures that are individually designed by an architect for a specified user. Such residences typically are constructed from detailed architectural plans and specifications and feature an exceptionally high level of workmanship and exceptionally high-grade materials throughout the interior and exterior of the structure. The design features exceptionally high-quality exterior refinements and ornamentation, and exceptionally high-quality interior refinements. The workmanship, materials, and finishes throughout the dwelling are of exceptionally high quality.

Q2

Dwellings with this quality rating are often custom designed for construction on an individual property owner's site. However, dwellings in this quality grade are also found in high-quality tract developments featuring residence constructed from individual plans or from highly modified or upgraded plans. The design features detailed, high quality exterior ornamentation, high-quality interior refinements, and detail. The workmanship, materials, and finishes throughout the dwelling are generally of high or very high quality.

Q3

Dwellings with this quality rating are residences of higher quality built from individual or readily available designer plans in above-standard residential tract developments or on an individual property owner's site. The design includes significant exterior ornamentation and interiors that are well finished. The workmanship exceeds acceptable standards and many materials and finishes throughout the dwelling have been upgraded from "stock" standards.

Q4

Dwellings with this quality rating meet or exceed the requirements of applicable building codes. Standard or modified standard building plans are utilized and the design includes adequate fenestration and some exterior ornamentation and interior refinements. Materials, workmanship, finish, and equipment are of stock or builder grade and may feature some upgrades.

Q5

Dwellings with this quality rating feature economy of construction and basic functionality as main considerations. Such dwellings feature a plain design using readily available or basic floor plans featuring minimal fenestration and basic finishes with minimal exterior ornamentation and limited interior detail. These dwellings meet minimum building codes and are constructed with inexpensive, stock materials with limited refinements and upgrades.

Q6

Dwellings with this quality rating are of basic quality and lower cost; some may not be suitable for year-round occupancy. Such dwellings are often built with simple plans or without plans, often utilizing the lowest quality building materials. Such dwellings are often built or expanded by persons who are professionally unskilled or possess only minimal construction skills. Electrical, plumbing, and other mechanical systems and equipment may be minimal or non-existent. Older dwellings may feature one or more substandard or non-conforming additions to the original structure

Definitions of Not Updated, Updated, and Remodeled

Not Updated

Little or no updating or modernization. This description includes, but is not limited to, new homes.

Residential properties of fifteen years of age or less often reflect an original condition with no updating, if no major components have been replaced or updated. Those over fifteen years of age are also considered not updated if the appliances, fixtures, and finishes are predominantly dated. An area that is 'Not Updated' may still be well maintained and fully functional, and this rating does not necessarily imply deferred maintenance or physical/functional deterioration.

Updated

The area of the home has been modified to meet current market expectations. These modifications are limited in terms of both scope and cost.

An updated area of the home should have an improved look and feel, or functional utility. Changes that constitute updates include refurbishment and/or replacing components to meet existing market expectations. Updates do not include significant alterations to the existing structure.

Remodeled

Significant finish and/or structural changes have been made that increase utility and appeal through complete replacement and/or expansion.

A remodeled area reflects fundamental changes that include multiple alterations. These alterations may include some or all of the following: replacement of a major component (cabinet(s), bathtub, or bathroom tile), relocation of plumbing/gas fixtures/appliances, significant structural alterations (relocating walls, and/or the addition of) square footage). This would include a complete gutting and rebuild.

Explanation of Bathroom Count

Three-quarter baths are counted as a full bath in all cases. Quarter baths (baths that feature only a toilet) are not included in the bathroom count. The number of full and half baths is reported by separating the two values using a period, where the full bath count is represented to the left of the period and the half bath count is represented to the right of the period.

Example:

3.2 indicates three full baths and two half baths.
